

From Palm Sunday to Easter

Holy Week played out in many ways in the diocese as churches were no longer held to ransom by the strains of Covid viruses.

Palm Sunday had many parishioners processing through the streets around their churches. Mid-week services were held and Maundy Thursday services with the washing of the feet and stripping of the holy table took place in many parishes. However, many parishes chose to have only an hour-long Good Friday, instead of the traditional three hour service ... but all held glorious Easter morning services!

Left - Palm Sunday procession at St Francis Xavier; Right - Members of Holy Trinity processed around Havelock Square led by retired Priest, David Grobbelaar.

During a Maundy Thursday Passover meal at St Saviour's, the Dean and Team Rector, Sharon Nell, washed the feet of self-supporting Priest, Ivan Edelson, of St Cuthbert's.

Bishop Eddie visited St Ninian's on Palm Sunday. Retired Priest Churchwarden Mgedezi assisted him.

The view from pulpit and pew

❖ Indaba extends condolences to the family of self-supporting Priest, Lovemore Mola, who served in the Sundays River Valley Parish for many years. May his family and friends feel the peace of Jesus surround them as they mourn their loss.

❖ Indaba gives praise and thanksgiving to the Lord for the continued healing of retired Priest David Grobbelaar and asks for continued prayers as he recovers from yet another operation.

❖ Indaba reminds readers that our Website is still down which means the indaba e-mail is not filtering through. Please mark all correspondence for attention indaba and send to reception@pediocese.org.za

❖ Indaba would like to bring back the events notice board - so parishes please do send in the dates and times of events - preferably two months ahead of the event.

Clergy on the move ...

• Dean Sharon Nell, together with her husband Piet, leaves for the Diocese of Wangaratta, Australia, where she will spend her three months sabbatical. The Bishop of Wangaratta, Bishop Clarence Boston, personally invited Sharon to his diocese for some rest and relaxation and to form ties with the Port Elizabeth Diocese. During this time, Sharon and Piet will also visit family and friends.

